

A Symposium
The Enduring Chronicle:
Reconstruction and the Promise of Freedom

Saturday, February 27, 2016

9:00 am - 4:30 pm

(Registration opens 8:30 a.m.)

National Archives at Atlanta

5780 Jonesboro Road, Morrow, GA 30260

Dr. Edna Greene Medford
Chair, Department of History,
Howard University

Dr. Ehren Foley
South Carolina Department of
Archives and History

Featured Speakers

Kahlil G. Chism
Education Specialist,
Jimmy Carter Presidential Library

Dr. Jelani Favors
History Professor,
Clayton State University

Also Featuring

- ❖ Joel Walker, Education Specialist at National Archives at Atlanta
- ❖ William Durant, Indexer Freedmen's Bureau Indexing Project
- ❖ Lovejoy High School Chorale Ensemble
- ❖ Historical Characters Portrayed by AAHGS Youth Players
- ❖ Exhibits of Family History Research by Genealogists

This event is FREE and lunch is included.

Register at www.aahgsatl.org

Seating is limited, so register today!!

Sponsored by the National Archives at Atlanta, in partnership with the Afro-American Historical and Genealogical Society (AAHGS), Metro Atlanta Chapter and the Friends of the National Archives

