

AFRO-AMERICAN HISTORICAL AND GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

METRO ATLANTA CHAPTER

"Discovering Our Ancestors, Our History and Ourselves – TOGETHER"

WHO WE ARE

The Afro-American Historical and Genealogical Society (AAHGS), Inc. Metro Atlanta Chapter, established in February 2000, is a group of family-tree researchers who share historical and genealogical information, methodology and sources about African American ancestry. Members range from beginners to published authors who research any state, not just Georgia.

AAHGS is a national non-profit membership organization of diverse individuals committed to the preservation of the history, genealogy and culture of African-ancestored populations of the local, national and international communities. www.aahgs.org
